BARBARA HOPKINS REPRESENTS CITY OF MANASSAS PARK AND EALY HOPKINS & ASSOCIATES IN 2007-2008 INAUGURAL CLASS OF LEADERSHIP PRINCE WILLIAM

Manassas, VA (September, 2007) – Barbara Hopkins has been accepted into the 2007-2008 Inaugural Class of Leadership Prince William on behalf of her accounting firm, Ealy Hopkins and Associates. Barbara was also asked to represent The City of Manassas Park in the 2007-2008 class. “The City of Manassas Park is pleased that Mrs. Hopkins is representing our community as a member of the Leadership Prince William Class of 2007. This is a wonderful opportunity for both Mrs. Hopkins and the Manassas Park community.” said Mercury Payton, City Manager of Manassas Park.

Leadership is a process, not just a position. To this end, Leadership Prince William is dedicated to enriching the capacity and number of leaders in Prince William County, the City of Manassas and the City of Manassas Park. Alumni use their diverse talents, skills and unique perspectives to address community-wide challenges, identify viable alternatives and help forge the future of Prince William. “I am looking forward to the Leadership Prince William program, working together to make our community a world-class destination for businesses, families and visitors.” said Mrs. Hopkins.

Leadership, community service and education is second nature to Barbara, who is co-chair of the Prince William County – Greater Manassas Chamber of Commerce Education committee, an Associate Professor of accounting at NOVA Community College. She speaks regularly to churches, associations and other groups on financial and tax issues; has volunteered as an English as a Second Language teacher and is a member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, which focuses on youth and education within the community.

Ealy Hopkins and Associates will be launching a series of financial seminars this Fall for individuals, small businesses and non-profits. These seminars will focus on developing accounting systems, preparing tax returns and understanding IRS requirements.

Ealy Hopkins has developed innovative and affordable solutions for non-profits and small businesses. Whether you are setting up new systems, keeping up with vital monthly accounting tasks, or needing consulting support; Ealy Hopkins will help you integrate the right systems and processes. Look to them for expert assistance for your day-to-day operations and to strengthen the finance, administration and management skills of your vital employees. With Ealy Hopkins, take control of your books, your taxes and your future.
